

SERVICE PROVIDER & PROVISIONER TO THE WORLD'S LARGEST PRIVATE YACHTS
A DIVISION OF YCO DEUXMIL PLC

*"We provide the superyacht community with everything from the finest foods and wines available to full yacht maintenance facilities.
The standard and range of our services are second-to-none."*

From our four offices in Spain and Gibraltar, we do everything possible to meet the many and varied needs of the superyacht community.

We offer everything from food and wine provisioning to the sourcing and supply of those elusive, hard-to-find spare parts.

Over the years, the company has proved an invaluable resource for both owners and captains, offering a crew recruitment service, flight and hotel bookings, car or limousine rental, laundry, cleaning and full catering services, to name but a few.

In addition, comprehensive yacht servicing and maintenance facilities can easily be arranged for clients.

We have offices in Palma, Barcelona, Gibraltar and on the Costa Del Sol. You'll find details of the many services we offer on the following pages.

If there's any way we can help you, please feel free to contact us. You will find all our contact details at the back of this brochure.

No one understands better than us the pressures, demands and constraints involved in supplying and running a superyacht, particularly during the busy chartering season.

Our provisioning department is rapidly building a deserved reputation for its ability to source and supply the freshest premium produce and fine wines to superyachts.

We can do everything from bulk buying basics such as fresh bread, mineral water and coffee to providing all the essential ingredients for a sumptuous five-course banquet.

All you need to do is either email or fax us your shopping list, with as much detail as possible (for example brand preferences, sizes and quantities) and we'll quickly and efficiently deliver the order directly to your yacht.

If, on the other hand, you require a more personal service, we will come to your yacht to discuss your exact requirements.

One of the many services Yacht Help Group offers that both captains and engineers find invaluable is our ability to source spare parts at competitive prices from our vast database of marine manufacturers and distributors and deliver them to yachts both quickly and efficiently.

Additionally, having both ex-captains and experienced engineers on our staff gives us the ability to understand and help resolve virtually any electrical, mechanical or electronic system issue and track down the relevant part or parts.

Emergency requests will always be given priority status and spare parts can be shipped to your yacht anywhere in the world.

We can also supply day-to-day items such as oil, filters and pumps.
